AT QUEEN'S PARK

Your loved one celebrated with care and dignity

At Queen's Park, we understand how important it is to have a calm, welcoming space where family and friends can come together. Our function rooms overlook the park's natural surroundings, offering a quiet and comforting setting just moments from the crematorium and local churches.

Whether you're planning a simple gathering or a larger celebration of life, our team will support you with sensitivity and care. We offer private room hire, flexible buffet options, a licensed bar, and thoughtful touches such as a memory table and personalised room layout. Free parking, accessible facilities and a dedicated coordinator make the day as easy as possible for you and your guests.

We're here to help you shape a fitting tribute — with dignity, warmth and attention to detail.

Frequently Asked Questions

How much does a wake at Woodpecker cost?

The pricing for your wake is consists of your room hire cost, your catering package and any extras you have chosen such as table linen or chair covers. This is calculated for you based on the number of guests and the options chosen; our functions team can easily provide an approximate price for you upon enquiry.

How much is the deposit?

We ask for our room hire fee upfront as your deposit. Room hire pricing starts from £59* for 2-3 hours, price depending on your choice of room and how long you require the space. Please note, this payment is non-refundable.

*Pricing applicable April 2026 – March 2027

When is our remaining balance due?

Your final balance is due one week before the event, including your catering and any extras such as table linen or pre-purchased wine. Payment can be made via credit/debit over the phone or you can pop in with cash or card.

Can the bill/invoice be paid by the funeral director?

Yes, please provide contact details for your funeral director, including telephone number, postal address and email address.

How long do we have our private room?

Your room hire covers 2-3 hours, which we find is normally the ideal length for a wake or celebration of life. We do offer the option to extend this time or book a longer period, subject to availability and additional room hire charges. Our function manager can help you to plan the best option for your booking.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I choose my catering package?

Your package choice is up to you, however our functions team is on hand to help recommend options to suit your budget and preferences. Our Together menu buffet options are the most popular choice for wake catering, with lighter packages for mid-morning or mid-afternoon wakes and more substantial packages suitable for lunchtime and dinnertime bookings. We will cater for any special diets or allergies provided we have received this information 7 days prior to your booking date.

How and when do we deliver items for our memory table?

You can deliver photos, medals and personal objects, memory books etc. the day before or the morning of the funeral, subject to open hours /staff available on site. Please arrange a time for this in advance with a member of the functions team.

What parking facilities do you have at Queen's Park?

There is a large free-of-charge car park adjacent and additional on-road parking subject to availability.

Do you have disabled access?

Yes, there is a large ramp from the car park, and an accessible lift to the first floor where the function room and bar are located. A radar key-accessed toilet is located on the ground floor.

Are we allowed to bring dogs?

Yes, we are dog-friendly. We welcome well-behaved dogs kept on a lead with a nominated carer on site at all times. Management reserves the right to ask for dogs to be removed if non-compliant.
